ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE!

PHILADELPHIA, April 9, 1846.
Last August a year, I caught a violent cold, in consequence of getting wet in a shower of rain.
A circumstance so common gave me no immediate concern, supposing that I should soon get rid of it.
On the contrary, however, I daily grew worse; a violent cough set in, then pain in my breast and between my shoulders. I now suffered great oppression from the great secretion of purulent matter in my lungs. I became greatly alarmed; and my friends considered my situation extremely critical, the more so as loss of appetite, hectic fever, and night sweats rendered me as weak as a child, and at night the sweat literally poured off me! This was my condition when I commenced using "Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naphtha." I procured one bottle, and experienced so much benefit that I resolved to continue it. It is now six months since I ceased using the medicine, and the cure remains perfect. I firmly believe this medicine is far superior to every other remedy for Consumption of the Lungs.

Affirmed and subscribed this 9th day of April, 1846, before me.

CONSUMPTION.

LOUIS FONTAIN, jr., partner of the firm of Fontain & Son, Chemists and Prescriptionists to the Royal University, Paris, has established at Washington city, D. C., a depot for the sale of the above celebrated compound, at Wm. Adam's Bookstore, No. 3, Elliott's Buildings, Pennsylvania Avenue, near Jackson Hall, which they offer to the American public as a sure antidote for Consumption, in its advanced as well as incipient stages.
Acting directly upon the LUNGS, and arresting their decay, it not only soothes and quiets at once the distress and pain attendant upon this heretofore regarded fatal disease, but restores the lungs and their sympathizing organs, to natural and healthful action. Accompanying each package are general instructions and directions (translated) for its use, adapted to all cases, and if strictly followed, will not fail, in every instance—if the lungs are not wholly consumed—of restoring to health which may be permanently secured by future care and avoiding too much exposure to atmospheric changes.

Price, eight Francs.

For the information of persons residing in the interior; any part of the government—he would state that the remedy is prepared and imported direct from their Laboratoire, Paris, and that the same can be transported through mail, as he is advised by officers of the Post Office Department, to any post office in the country, at the same charge as for a double letter. Any persons, therefore, residing distant from this city, who may wish to avail themselves of the remedy, can do so by addressing him through the mail, post paid. Two dollars accompanying an order, will entitle a person to one whole and one third package.

Important Questions? Every body is asking in the city—and there is a laudable curiosity to have the question solved—whether Gen.
Santa Ana, who had the temerity to attack old "Plough and Ready," at Buena Vista and win such imperishable laurels for his gallant army, by getting terribly thrashed, is the same identical Santa Ana whom President Polk permitted to pass the blockading squadron last August, and who, Mr. Polk assured the world in his message of December last, was so much disposed for peace between us and Mexico, that he (the President) had unlimited confidence in his (that Santa Ana's) disposition?
And there is also a burning desire in the public mind, to know, whether, if these two Santa Anas be the same person, Mr. Polk has had his eyes opened to Mexican diplomacy and to the selfish designs of the romancing, one-legged Hero's emissaries who have been so unwisely suffered to bamboozle the Government with the wild promises of peace by a man whose past history is the guarantee of his Punic faith? And there is likewise an intense anxiety among the people, to know whether Mr. Polk has or has not placed out of his control the Peace money of three millions voted to him by the last Congress? It is to be earnestly hoped that the Father Confessor of the President, the venerable old man of the Union, will speedily solve these questions to the satisfaction of the country and with credit to the sagacity of Mr. Polk!

Our Secrets. There has been a culpable neglect on the part of the Secretary of War in allowing the enemy to get into possession of our secrets by the capture of the despatches to the Heads of the Army in Mexico. Well may Gen. Taylor have exclaimed, when Lt. Richey was killed, that his death was equal to the loss of a battle! Why has not a cypher been used in the correspondence of the Department?
Was it too much trouble? General Marcy's invention, perhaps, was not equal to the task, though it was deep enough on one occasion to teach him how to make the State of New York pay for a rent in his breeches. The illustrious Secretary is not an Anti-Renter—that much is certain.

Letters from the Army. The Philadelphia Ledger, a Polk paper fighting on its own hook, scoutily defends the recent order of the government prohibiting our officers and soldiers from writing letters home from the Army to find their way into the public papers, &c. Gen. Marcy would have done equally well, and ended much better, if he had included in that order a prohibition to himself and those thieves under him from writing letters to the Army in a language that could be read, if they could fall into the hands of the enemy, for the information of any value which Santa Ana has yet obtained respecting our plans of the war, has been derived from the interception of the Government despatches!

It was during the war of 1812, that Major, now Gen. Taylor, won the first Brevet rank ever conferred by our Government: His gallant and brilliant defence at Fort Harrison, a feeble log building, garrisoned by some thirty men, against 4000 Miami Indians, prompted Mr. Madison to confer on Capt. Taylor the commission of Major by brevet.

The Whigs of Alabama, we learn from the Mobile Advertiser, contemplate holding a convention on the first Wednesday in May, at Montgomery, for the purpose of organizing the party with a view to carrying the next Governatorial Election, and at least three out of seven members of the next Congress. Two U. S. Senators are to be elected by the next Legislature of the State, and it is believed with proper exertion, that the Whigs can carry that body so as to secure a return to the Senate of men devoted to Whig principles and measures. Success to the efforts of the gallant Whigs of Alabama!

Prophetic. Should it turn out, says the Philadelphia Inquirer, that Gen. Taylor has with an army of six or seven thousand men, beaten back and been victorious over Santa Ana and his army of twenty-three thousand, the popularity of the American hero, already great, will receive a new and enthusiastic impulse—an impulse that will secure for him the highest honors in the gift of the American people.

Jewels not Baggage. A New Jersey Court of Justice decided, the other day, that common carriers are not liable for the loss in their hands of Jewels transported in a trunk as baggage, that they come under the category of freight, and unless they are paid for as such, they must be at the risk of the owner. People are much in the habit of carrying valuable articles as baggage in order to save the price of freight, but it
